

The INOCA International Unacceptable Behaviour Policy

INOCA International is a voluntary group where everyone involved gives their time and expertise completely free of charge. It is essential therefore that the important dedication and commitment of everyone involved is both respected and protected.

INOCA International is proud to have a very supportive membership. As we grow however, so does our exposure to the likes of online trolling, so we feel it is prudent to introduce an Unacceptable Behaviour Policy so that everyone involved is protected from unnecessary/unwarranted/unacceptable behaviours that could potentially occur on any of the INOCA International platforms.

Any group or individual who is involved in, or associated with, any of the behaviours listed below, will be removed from all INOCA International platforms.

The list below is not exhaustive, but we hope clearly indicates the kinds of behaviours that will not be tolerated on our platforms. (Unacceptable behaviour towards INOCA International occurring on any other platform will always be reported).

THE INOCA INTERNATIONAL 'ABCD' of UNACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOUR

A - Abusive, Aggressive, Accusatory, Acrimonious, Argumentative, Aspersion.

B - Bullying, baiting, belittling, beligerent.

C - Condescending, Calumnious, Confrontational, Combative.

D - Demeaning, disrespectful, derogatory, disparaging, difficult, spiteful, disruptive, Disputatious, Discordant.

(Genuine complaints, grievances or concerns can always be raised via the 'Contact Us' form on our website)
